

GETTING Around

WaterBus

marinawaterbus.com

On summer weekends, hop on the Marina del Rey WaterBus for only $1 per person each way. This scenic ride makes several stops along the Marina, including Mother's Beach and Burton Chace Park. The WaterBus operates Friday through Sunday, mid-June - Labor Day weekend in September. View the stops on the map on the back.

Public Bus Service

bigbluebus.com

The Santa Monica Big Blue Bus is a great way to explore the Los Angeles Westside. In the Marina, Route 3 travels along Lincoln Boulevard to Santa Monica, where you can visit the Santa Monica Pier and shop at Third Street Promenade. The Big Blue Bus Route 3 also travels to and from the LAX Bus Terminal.

Daniel's Bike Rentals

310-980-4045 | danielsbikesales.com

Located at Fisherman's Village, Daniel's offers hourly and daily rentals. A few local hotels have rental bikes available for their guests; inquire with your hotel concierge or front desk.

SUMMER Guide

MARINA DEL REY

2024

Welcome

Tucked along the Los Angeles coastline just four miles north of LAX, Marina del Rey is L.A.'s Marina—a charming and vibrant seaside playground with laid-back vibes and sweeping coastal views. An unrivaled homebase for a summer getaway to L.A., it's just minutes from the area's most sought-after attractions—including Santa Monica Pier, Hollywood, Universal Studios and SoFi Stadium—yet serenely removed from the hustle and bustle. This summer, discover where L.A. comes to play in the Marina's distinctive hotels, top-rated restaurants, and unique waterfront event venues.
