MARINA DEL REY, Calif. – September 21st, 2015 – Since its grand opening on October 15th, 1990, The Ritz-Carlton, Marina del Rey has been the ideal escape for many. Over the years, guests have sought out the Los Angeles hotel for layovers, waterside weddings and social gatherings, and most recently, Playa Vista companies have even utilized it as a tech-savvy hotspot.

Located on the calm yacht-filled marina, and less than five miles from Los Angeles International Airport, the luxury hotel has undergone a series of facelifts since its debut. One milestone includes the hotel's successful restaurant concept, Cast & Plow, which launched in early 2014.

To kick off this year's silver jubilee, the hotel will launch a premiere luxury package priced at $2,500 (available from October 8th-15th), which includes: two nights in an Executive Suite, a handpicked prix fixe dinner featuring favorites from hotel's opening ceremony such as Beef Wellington and Baked Alaska, as well as a time capsule box filled with hand-selected memorabilia from the decade.

On October 15th, guests and locals are encouraged to take selfies amidst a customized backdrop that will be set at the front drive, and post their photos using the brand's hashtag: #RCMemories. Inside, guests will be welcomed with champagne as well as cake pops to celebrate. Music from
